Grab & Go Activities Continue

RML continues to offer Grab & Go Activities for kids and teens.

While in-library programs are suspended, children & teens can stop in anytime and pick up a Grab & Go activity to take home and create. Each activity is age-appropriate for skill and interest.

Grab & Go activities are available on a first-come, first-serve basis until gone. New activities are available monthly on the second Wednesday.

READ at Robey Memorial Library!

This free program encourages parents to read 1,000 books with their child before he or she enters school. Studies show that children should hear at least 1,000 books from birth to age 5 to build the pre-reading skills they need to succeed in school. Plus, sharing stories together is lots of fun!

- Read to your child.
- Track books read in your log.
- Each time 100 titles are completed, stop in the library for rewards!
- Completion of 1,000 books earns a diploma, completion certificate and free book to keep!

This free program encourages Kindergarteners through 8th graders to read 100 books independently before high school.

- Complete a square on the reading log for each book read.
- Upon completion of 20 titles, stop in the library for a free book.
- Complete 100 books for any book of your choice!

This yearly literacy program for 9th through 12th grade students promotes the habit of reading for enjoyment. Students are encouraged to read books, both classic and contemporary, in a variety of genres and rewards them for their efforts.

- Program runs from September through August each year.
- Pick up a reading list from the library (or print from the website).
- READ—circle the titles of the books you have read.
- Return to the library!

reference materials on issues of real-time importance from trusted, nonpartisan sources.

- Summary articles: 10,000+ summary articles curated for pre-search and topic exploration enable users to gain background information and find direct links for deeper research.
- Key Concepts: Relevant terms are displayed within search results to help users identify the focus of each article and provide guidance for additional keywords related to their topic.
- Persistent record links
- Citations: MLA, Chicago, APA, and Harvard
- Accessible content: Audio files and dictation of text content improve accessibility and provide different avenues for patrons to absorb information. Text content is translated into 60+ languages.

Interactive Mind Map visualization tool teaches users how to develop subject vocabulary and identify connections between and across topics.

21 Read-Aloud Challenge from

Join the 21-Day Challenge to read aloud for 15 minutes every day and help build a universal read aloud habit.

Read Aloud 15 MINUTES is challenging all parents and caregivers to commit to building a daily read aloud habit by accepting the 21-Day Read Aloud Challenge. Help us raise awareness as to the importance of reading aloud and encourage more parents and caregivers to make it part of their daily routine.

How to participate:

1. Sign up at readaloud.org/21daychallenge.html. Accept the challenge by posting a photo or video of you reading aloud with your child, or children, on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram and continue reading aloud for at least 15 minutes for 21 days in a row. Please tag @Read Aloud for Facebook; @ReadAloud_org for Twitter; and @read_aloud_15 for Instagram with #21DayReadAloud.

"From that time on, the world was hers for the reading. She would never be lonely again, never miss the lack of intimate friends. Books became her friends and there was one for every mood."

This Month's Q&A RML Tips

Q: How can I read a newly published book you do not have?

A: RML tries to add to the collection to meet "a wide range of reading, audio visual, and technology materials with diversity of appeal, and the presentation of different points of view." (See our Selection Policy.)

If a recently published title is not in our collection, you may complete the suggestion request form on our website (<https://www.waukon.lib.ia.us/contact>) or contact RML staff to complete the form.

RML will do its best to meet these requests!

NOTE: Remember Allamakee County card holders have access to BRIDGES with their library card! Ask for details.

Available In-Library and on BRIDGES.
